

Rev. Min Chung

Introduction

- Psalm 90:0
- Psalm 90:10
- Psalm 90:12

I. Lessons from the life of Moses

- Deuteronomy 34:10-12
- Deuteronomy 34:7

A. The first stage: Who I am [0-25]

- Hebrews 11:23-25
- Acts 7:20-22

1. Dependence to independence
2. Foundation to formation
3. Independence to dependence

B. The second stage: What I do [25-45]

- Acts 7:23-28

1. We get to see what we cannot do – illusion
2. We get to see what we can do – illumination
3. We get to see what we need to focus on – implementation

C. The third stage: What I leave [45-?]

- Acts 7:29-30
- Acts 7:34

1. Faithfulness
2. Discipleship
3. Legacy

II. Lessons from the death of Moses

- Deuteronomy 34:7

A. The question of happiness – We will never be completely happy in this life

- Deuteronomy 34:4
- Deuteronomy 34:10

B. The question of failures – God's focus on us is not how we have failed how we have served

- Deuteronomy 34:5-7
- Deuteronomy 34:10
- Deuteronomy 18:18
- Acts 3:22

C. The question of accomplishment and legacy – God will carry on redemptive history in every generation

- Deuteronomy 34:9
- Daniel 4:3
- Psalm 119:90
- Psalm 145:4

D. The question of purpose – Life and death is about Jesus: By His grace for His glory

- Deuteronomy 34:10

1. Our whole life is about Jesus – Deuteronomy 34:10

2. Through our successes, we are to picture Jesus – The first rock
 - Exodus 17:6
 - 1 Corinthians 10:4

3. In our failures, we are to point to Jesus – The second rock
 - Deuteronomy 34:4
 - Numbers 20:8-12

4. We will make it to the end because of Jesus – Transfiguration
 - Luke 9:29-31